SUBJECT: CALWORKS 101 CLASSES

The Employment Development Department's Job Training Partnership Division (JTPD), in partnership with the California Department of Social Services, will provide four California Work Opportunity and Responsibility to Kids (CalWORKs) 101 workshops. These workshops will only be provided on the four dates shown below.

Each one-day session is designed to train representatives from the Service Delivery Areas (SDAs), and other Welfare-to-Work (WtW) grantees who are implementing the Department of Labor's WtW Grant Program. The class will address CalWORKs' eligibility, cash aid benefit limitations, time limits, allowable activities, sanctions, and referral processes.

The classes are scheduled for:

- April 13 in Sacramento
- April 27 in Fresno
- May 4 in Garden Grove
- May 12 in San Bernardino

There will be one session at each of the above sites. The sessions will be held from 9:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. The classes will be filled on a first-come, first-served basis. Only faxed registrations will be enrolled. Each session will hold a maximum of 35 persons.

The first 35 persons registered for each workshop will receive a confirmation letter detailing the specific location of the training site. The class is limited to two persons per SDA and other WtW grantees. In accordance with Directive D98-8, travel cost will not be reimbursed by JTPD.

If you have any questions, please contact Terri Angelo, Capacity Building Unit, at (916)-653-4471, or e-mail Ms. Angelo at Tangelo@edd.ca.gov.
